GoodVon TMThis was a good read. I didn't really connect with the characters but I liked them and wanted to know what would happen. I made the mistake of reading the blurb for the second one before I finished with this one and that spoiled the ending for me. Not a will-read-again-frequently kind of book but entertaining.

Kurzbeschreibung Can pretending to be in love lead to a real forever ever after happiness? Jayden Sindler is a member of the wedding party for his sister's wedding and has been warned to bring someone with him to keep the single hunting women at arm's length. Luck presents itself in the form of Nash Vargas. Invited to accompany Jayden, Nash convinces him to playact as something more believable-boyfriends. But what happens when acting turns into real affection? And will there be a future after the weekend? Kurzbeschreibung Can pretending to be in love lead to a real forever ever after happiness?
