as Kane's and Victoria's, or tantalizing as Matt's and Shannon's, nor as steamy as Daniel's and Madelyn's, but nevertheless, each person has a different character. Therefore, the story will be different. In Dominique's case, she had been burned by love before, and there was the situation with her abusive marriage. Also, Trent had been duped by his fiancée and was leery of getting involved in another relationship. All in all, Ms. Ray has created another masterpiece. "Break Every Rule" is above reproach. "Break Every Rule" is Dominique's and Trent's story and is well worth reading. I do hope Ms. Ray would continue Trent's story involving his parentage. I would love to know the other side of Trent's untold life. Looking forward to other readings by Ms. Ray as I am a great fan of her writings.

I thoroughly enjoyed reading about Dominique. Initially, I thought her character would have been more fiery, but after getting into the book, and realizing what happened to her to make her so bitter, I think her character was written perfectly. She was still wearing scars from an abusive marriage. While this didn't sizzle quite as much as the other books, the story was just as tender, more so, because Trent and Dominique had to overcome her trauma. Trent was the right temperament for her. I loved how the family was always there with ready support and I really enjoyed catching up on Daniel and Madelyn. Ms Ray just keep them coming.

Von missnikki7
In this beautifully written story Ms Ray continues the Taggart/Falcon saga. Dominique and Trent are great together. Dominique, who does not want to be in a relationship with another man for a long while, just can not keep her eyes off her new neighbor Trent Master. Trent, who does not want to get involve with another lying women in this life time, can not keep his eyes off of the extremely beautiful Dominique Falcon! Neither one of them can help the attraction they feel for each other but the try and fight it for as long as they can. All there is left to say to Ms Ray is "You Go Girl." Much love to Ms Ray!

Kurzbeschreibung Dominique Falcon is a gorgeous model, a wealthy socialite and a total fool when it comes to love. After falling for a charmer who was after her money, she's decided to set some ground rules for romance, starting with: Don't be richer than your man. But that was before she met Trent Masters, a ruggedly sexy truckdriver who drives her crazy. He might be rough around the edges, but Trent is a hardworking man who built his successful trucking firm from humble beginnings. Dominique can't ignore the sparks between them but dating a man so soon after his fiancée betrayed him would be breaking another basic rule: Don't trust a man on the rebound. Even so, things are heating up fast and even though she might get burned Dominique is ready to risk it all. In the game of love, rules are made to be broken.
