KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Hot great readVon LivI like the writing style. Its a short quick read from two POVs like in the first book.The Story of Agnes and David continues with both of them wanting to be in this Sub/Dom relationship but each with their own worries. Agnes is still married but hasnt told David yet. David is afraid of losing Agnes because she is everything he could dream of. The BDSM Part is good but as far as I remember, I enjoyed the first book a lot more. The story is predictable because you can see the turn of events coming but its none the less exciting. I like the dynamic between Eliza and David. I also enjoyed reading about Davids friends Eve and James and also Marcus and Willow. The inner turmoil of Agnes is interesting to read but it was weird for me that she did not grief the loss of her baby at all in this book but was devastated in the first one. I enjoyed reading Davids POV a lot. I probably wouldnt like him as much if I would know him just from Elizas POV because then I wouldnt know his motives and what he is thinking. I liked this book in the beginning and I loved it in the end. I cant wait to read the 3rd one.-- I received an ARC of this book from the author Sophia Scarlet in exchange for an honest review. --

Kurzbeschreibung Im falling in love. When Im with him I feel free and vibrant. It feels safe. It feels right. Its a lie. When Agnes Bright agreed to a two month trial period as David Lakes submissive lover, she intended to end her marriage and tell him everything. But the longer her divorce papers remain unsigned and her husband remains in the shadows, the harder it becomes to admit that she is not who she claimed to be that first night at the Grotto. Will the truth set her free or burn her new life to ashes? The three book Absolution series is meant to be read in order: Bend Me (Absolution part one) Break Me (Absolution part two) Bind Me (Absolution part three)Be advised that this novel contains BDSM content, dark elements, and mature subject matter. Due to explicit sexual content and adult language this novel is recommend for readers 18 and older. Kurzbeschreibung Im falling in love. When Im with him I feel free and vibrant. It feels safe.
