Von Kindle-Kunde Ich mechte das Buch wirklich sehr gern, Ich htte fnf Sterne gegeben, wenn es etwas weniger Eishockey und mehr Geschichte gehabt htte. Denn fr mich ist dieser Sport uninteressant, was die Teile der Geschichte recht langweilig fr mich gemacht haben. Aber alles in allem sehr gelungen! Mit Figuren, die alle sehr liebenswert sind, ob Haupt.-oder Nebenrolle. Ich werde das Buch definitiv weiter empfehlen!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Liebe berwindet alle Hindernisse.Von writer87Ich habe 5 Sterne gegeben, weil ich die Beziehung zwischen Dana und Eric bewundere. auerdem ist das Buch flssig und sehr gefhlsbetont geschrieben. Mann kann die Qualen frmlich spren und dennoch schafft c.Gayle es den beiden ein plausibles happy Ende zu verschaffen.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. There's no chance to not love this book!Von SchneeflockeBreakaway by Catherine Gayle is a book that I never would have read if it hadn't been for free. I've never been interested in hockey and my expectations on this book weren't very high. I just thought: well, it's for free, it doesn't hurt to give it a try even if hockey isn't my cup of tea at all. And man, I've never been this wrong before! I instantly fell in love with the two MC and much more surprisingly, I also fell in love with hockey. Catherine Gayle really hooked me up with this sport and nowadays I'm regularly watching hockey games and I enjoy them endlessly.But enough about me, now let's talk about the book. Breakaway is the story of Dana Campbell and Eric (Zee) Zellinger, who happens to be the captain of the fictional Portland Storm NHL hockey team. Dana is his best friends little sister and she's always been like a kid sister to Eric, too. The three of them spent a happy childhood and youth together, but this came to an abrupt end seven years ago, when she's been raped and has never been able to live a normal life since then. Even after years of counseling, being around men is nearly impossible for her, let alone to trust a man enough to let him touch her. But she has one last chance to overcome her issues. And therefore, without an announcement, she's travelling across the country asking one big favor of Eric.And then begins the heartwarming story of Dana's and Eric's adventure, of their challenge to slowly build up enough trust for Dana to overcome the panic attacks and start to enjoy being touched by a man. It's an emotional rollercoaster the two of them are on and to make things even worse, Eric's team is struggling once again to make the playoffs and needs it's captain to be at top of his game.Where other authors might drift off into kitsch, Catherine Gayle is able to tell this story very sensitive and absolutely convincingly with vivid dialogues and great hockey scenes. And like I said before, there's truly no chance to not fall in love with Dana and Eric and there's a big chance that at the end of this book hockey is your new favorite sport to watch. One thing is definitely for sure: After Breakaway you are addicted to the Portland Storm Series. So be warned!Conclusion: This is, without any doubt, a five star read! Try it, you won't regret it, you'll love it!
