Even her grandmothers having more sex than she is. That is, until toddler Jake's irresistible father hurtles back into her life. Albert promises fidelity, plus married life filled with the best sex Stephanie's ever had. But there's a tantalizing new wrinkle: Frank Waterman, rising star and Stephanie's old crush, is suddenly semi-available and interested. And her stalled career seems to be heating up. But when her big break erupts in a scandal that puts her on the front page instead, Stephanie's in a whole new league. Now, with fame at her door and two hot guys fighting over her, Stephanie's got some big decisions to make and they may surprise everyone including her. From the Trade Paperback edition. From Booklist Single and playing piano in a department store at Christmas time, Stephanie Glassman isn't where she thought she'd be. She longs to be a jazz singer, but she can't seem to jump-start a career. Her grandmother's love life is more exciting than hers. Though she adores her two-year-old son, Jake, she is frustrated by his father, Albert, a stunt man and two-week fling from Verona, who only drops into his son's life occasionally. But when Albert arrives on Christmas day loaded down with gifts, Stephanie is quite pleased. She is not sure how she feels, however, when he ditches his latest bimbo and decides that a life with her and Jake is what he wants. Especially since she has already fallen for seductive Frank. Stephanie is torn between her desire to give Jake a traditional family and her growing feelings for her new beau in this comic, breezy winner from popular and sexy Margolis. ^B Kristine Huntley Copyright American Library Association.
