Can't get enoughVon SiniFis***I received this book in exchange for an honest review from the Author and the Lovers of Paranormal Group on Goodreads.com***We get the story of Jamie, Jess' sister who we already get to know in 'New Beginnings', and Devlin. After finding Jamie in his dreams, Devlin makes his way to Edenton to meet the little wolf who he can't get out of his head. But the darkness is right on his heels and brings not only danger for him, but for everyone in Edenton. I totally can't get enough of Brandy's novels. She definitely did it again. I enjoyed Jamie's and Devlin's story and it was not only them, but I also met Fallon and Brody again which made me love it all over again. I can't wait for the next book.

Kurzbeschreibung They say that dreams can come true, but as a Dreamwalker, Devlin had yet to experience anything but nightmares. Then again, the druid had been held by sadistic vampires and dark mages for twenty years, forced to do their bidding. Newly escaped, he stumbles upon a dreamrealm where he can't resist a little werewolf. Jamie just wants someone to call her own. She feels like she's been waiting for an awfully long time, when a man who teases her memory begins to visit her while she's dreaming. From the moment she feels his turmoil, she's drawn in, wanting nothing more than to heal his broken soul. Before Devlin can decide what to do, he has to make a trip to Edenton. His first goal is to make sure someone who can't remember him is safe and happy. The little werewolf of his dreams happens to live there, and she's even more irresistible in real life. When you've been taught all your life to run, what will make you change? Can Jamie convince her mate to stay and fight? Will he risk everything to have what he needs? Or run to save them all?
