Von Anne Gracie : Bride by Mistake (Devil Riders) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Bride by Mistake (Devil Riders):

disappointed for two reasons. First, the author had mistaken American Latin culture and Spaniards. In Spain hadn't been guerrilleros, and the images and meanings are completely different. Second, the marriage could have been annulled and her argumentation to keep it are not well founded. The story itself is weak and lack of deep dialogues between the main characters. Also the time of traveling is not accurate at all. I would have expected more developed story in their time in England and not so quick end.

Empfehlenswert für Regency-Liebhaber/innen Von Merle Perfekt geschriebene Regency-Geschichte mit Handlung im Jahre 1819, in London und Spanien, in der Napoleon-Nachkriegs-Zeit. Die 13-jährige Isabella wurde während den Kriegswirren in Spanien auf der Flucht vor Vergewaltigern vom Engländer Luke Ripton gerettet. Um sie vor ihren Hschern definitiv zu beschützen, heiratet er sie und bringt sie unter seinem Namen im Kloster in Sicherheit. Acht Jahre später wird Luke, 27 Jahre alt und unterdessen Baron, klar, dass diese Ehe nicht annulliert werden kann. Er macht sich auf nach Spanien, das er eigentlich nie mehr betreten wollte, um seine inzwischen erwachsene Braut heimzuholen. Nach acht Jahren eingesperrt im Kloster möchte Isabella aber zuerst in ihre alte Heimat, um dort Persönliches in Ordnung zu bringen. Und sie ist so gar nicht, was Luke sich vorgestellt hat. Die Geschichte ist gut und überzeugend, sie reisst einen mit, die Charakterentwicklung ist sehr gut nachvollziehbar und spannend. Mein einziger kleiner Meckerpunkt ist, dass Rosa ihre Missetaten zu einfach zugibt. Aber nach den letzten, fast allesamt schwachen Regencybüchern, die ich gelesen habe, kann ich nur fünf Punkte geben.

There he rescued a young Spanish girl, Isabella, belonging to an aristocratic family. To save her reputation, he married her and left her in a convent under the protection of her aunt. Eight years later he returns to Spain to take Isabella to England. During this journey they both have to come to a convenient understanding, regarding to their marriage, and to face the demons of their past. I really enjoyed this exciting story! The characters are well developed and likable and the progress of the plot is well replicable, although, the end seems to be a little bit overdone.

Kurzbeschreibung Eight years ago, Lieutenant Luke Ripton made a hasty wartime marriage to protect a young girl from a forced union. Now, unable to obtain an annulment, Luke has no choice but to collect Isabella, the fiercely independent wife he never wanted. And while they remain bound to their vows, they never expected that the passionate fury they share could become passion of a different kind...
