You'd have to have a screw loose somewhere not to fall forVon Holly Fuhrmann (hfur@aol.com)Bride on the Loose! Renee Roszel packs an island with the zaniest crew since Gilligan's Island. Dana's a fiance who dove overboard and ended up on Beena's cat-filled island, and Sam's the vet who rescued Dana from her watery plight. He could be the man of her dreams, but it's hard to have dreams when you have no memory . . . or are pretending to have no memory! They say laughter is the best medicine, but it's an even more powerful drug when combined with love. Dana and Sam provide readers with a dose of both!!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Collins's "Married After Breakfast" really delivered!Von Ein KundeWhat can I say? Another heart-stealing, hug of a tale by talented author

Colleen Collins. I look forward to every book she releases and mourn each ending, knowing I will have to wait a while longer for the next humorous romp. MARRIED AFTER BREAKFAST was no exception. Every time I prop my feet on my ottoman, I think it's going to meow . . . Don't have a clue what I'm talking about? Well, heck, order the book! (You won't regret it. Scout's honor. Would I lead you wrong?) 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Colleen's talent for comedy shines through! Von Ein Kunde Having known Collen since college, I can attest to her flair for comedy, dialogue and plot. We've collaborated on a few writing projects together, and her talent as a writer and an editor is unparalleled. As a comedy writer (and performer), she's combined the best of both worlds in this engaging tale of love lost, found, and rewarded. It's a definite mood elevator!
