A true Stephen Hunt novel, fast, full of ideas and entertaining!Von AlexA true Stephen Hunt novel, fast, full of ideas and entertaining. I follow the writer for quite some time (google him, he sends an occasional newsletter). He tries out many different things as one should in this digital world. If you like one of his books or some from Nick Earls, Richard

Morgan, Ben Aaronovitch etc. you might like his as well. Sometimes the editing could have done more dilligently, but it makes the books not less enjoyable. Light, amusing and entertaining reading.

KurzbeschreibungBURNING ANGELS (Book 2 of The Vigil series). DESCRIPTION When Eleanor Lythe was invited to attend a charity art ball with the rest of her childrens home, she wasnt sure what to expect but being fed on by semi-immortal vampires, bitten and turned into a slave of their evil race, certainly wasnt it.Luckily, for Eleanor, the Vigil the covert branch of the U.S. Secret Service formed to fight the forces of the supernatural is on hand to cure her and protect her.But save her for just what sort of life?As Eleanor struggles to master her new powers, she comes to realise that in humanitys struggle against the darkness, the wrong side could have saved her. Some of her fellow agents might be ripped hot but does that actually matter if they are also willing to feed her to an ancient evil to achieve their mission?Because when your race is fighting a secret war for survival against vampires, zombies, werewolves, dark spirits, rogue angels and almost immortal Nazis, the worrying truth is . . . there might not be any safe side to trust!
