Sie ist ein Stadtmädchen und hat sich das alles nicht so einsam vorgestellt. Noch dazu brllt vor ihrer Tr eine Kuh! Als ein schwarzgekleideter Mann auf einem schwarzen Pferd auftaucht, wird ihre Angst noch grer. Ihre Flinte gibt ihr ein bisschen Sicherheit. Als sie erkennt, dass der Mann wegen der Kuh da ist, wagt sie sich aus dem Haus. Sie stolpert, es lst sich ein Schuss und trifft den Rancher - Devlin - in die Schulter. Ohne Mglichkeit Hilfe zu bekommen und mit einem Schneesturm im Anmarsch muss Eden ihre ngste berwinden und Devlin retten.Was sich dann weiter entwickelt ist eine gute und flssig geschriebene Geschichte, ein Aufeinanderprallen zweier Welten. Die Dialoge sind teils witzig, immer intelligent. Die aufkeimende Leidenschaft wird deutlich sprbar bis zur erotischen Entladung. Die Charaktere sind gut entwickelt und liebenswert. Auch wenn manche Wendung nicht ganz glaubwrdig ist, gesamt gesehen ist das Buch stimmig. Ich habe das Lesen ab der 1. Seite sehr genossen.Eine Leseempfehlung fr alle Happy End Hungrigen.

KurzbeschreibungAs the terrified Eden Harcourt stood inside the desolate Rocky Mountain cabin watching that beast outside, she tried desperately to remember all the reasons shed had for taking this nightmare of a vacation. When another beast in a black hat and coat, riding a black horse, entered the clearing in front of the cabin, Eden didnt know if she should be even more frightened than she already was or be grateful that she may have just been rescued. Finally deciding to trust this stranger, and with rifle still in hand, she mustered up enough courage to go outside.Devlin Stryker had tracked his about-to-give-birth cow up into the mountains outside of his ranch. The last thing he expected to find was a gun-toting, ethereal beauty. Was she real or a dream? All too soon he found out just how real she was!Eden didnt mean to shoot the dark stranger, she hadnt even loaded the gun! But it happened and now, with a late spring storm approaching, she had to do something and fast to help him.As the wind and snow pounded the tiny cabin for days on end and Devs strength returning with each passing day, there seemed to be a restlessness growing between them. Was it just a case of cabin fever? Or was something else stirring between those walls?KurzbeschreibungAs the terrified Eden Harcourt stood inside the desolate Rocky Mountain cabin watching that beast outside, she tried desperately to remember all the reasons shed had for taking this nightmare of a vacation.
