In this book Patrick is travelling with Mona to find the Bloodstone. There are lots of adventures on the way, and a love is growing between the two of them. Patrick has other commitments however, that will take him away from Mona.....maybe. Ridley is still after the stone, and Mona, and is turning more and more crazy. This is a great story, Jen Holling had really captivated me and I couldn't put this book down. She writes believable characters who you cheer and cry with. The story is gripping and exciting. Yes, very satisfying, and all three books are going on my keeper shelf for a re-reading.
