Von Amy Frazier : Celebrate the Child (Silhouette Special Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Celebrate the Child (Silhouette Special Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Amy Frazier's Best Book yet!!Von Ein KundeThis is a sensitive portrayal of the "special" child. The insightful character outline of the lady/doctor/mother is quite wonderful. Then the father's evolution from feeling the 'outsider' to his consternation about his daughter not being so-called "normal" - to his full acceptance of the flaws in all of us is truly a gem of development. Not to mention the sassy sentence structure that we have come to rely on in all of Ms. Frazier's books. We loved it! JML and MHL.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Congratulations, I'm proud to know you.Von Ein KundeMay I comment on the delightful portrayal of a special needs child; her mom, the newly introduction of her birth father, friends; trials and tribulations so truthfully told. I laughed, cried along with each page and lived every moment of it. It touched my heart. Why? I am a retired special education teacher for 25 years -- teaching, loving, understanding and devoted to the worth of special children.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Another heartwarming story by Amy Frazier. Von Ein KundeI enjoyed this book very much. It was filled with the acceptance of the special child who so often is scorned. We have a special child in our family, and we all love him very much.
