Kurzbeschreibung Marty came to NY looking for a new exciting life in the big city. His real estate agent only has one listing left for him to look at though, The Alasti Building. The Alasti Building is Manhattan's only Clothed Female Nude Male apartment building. In this secret world men aren't allowed to wear clothes. They are the naked playthings of a building full of horny women who vastly out number them. Marty agrees to get naked and watch a video brochure for the building. Things quickly get out of hand as his clothes vanish. He's fondled, teased and turned into putty by the clothed women that surround him. Once he sees The Alasti Building his, and your life, will never be the same. Over 55,000 words. Try the FREE sample chapters they won't disappoint you! This is only the first story from The Alasti Building. There is MUCH more to come. Now reformatted to make it easier to read and navigate. Actual reader's comments: I received my copy of "The Alasti Building" last week and wanted to write to tell you how much I enjoyed it. You've written one of the best CFNM stories I've ever read. And I think I've read most of them. Your story could be described as every man's perfect CFNM's life. From him having to get naked in Rachel's office to watch the video of life in the Alasti Building, getting fondled and observed by each woman he meets, his constant erect state when he gets shown around the building and what results from it, and finally to when Rachel lets him masturbate in the limo in front of her and invites Dorothy back to watch. The way you describe his feelings and your explanation of how natural it can be for women to enjoy this way of living is something I've never seen stated so well. Once I started reading, I couldn't put it down. I would just like to say WOW! The Alasti Building : Marty's Tale is fantastic. I am greatly enjoying The Alasti Building Marty's Tale! This story has to be one of the best stories I have read. Very well written and very professional. What a nice environment, and something I would like to see and experience. Where can I sign up!! That was a fun read. Even somewhat believable! This is an awesome story. Ardor created a fantastic vision in my head!
