I am a fan of Buroker's writing, especially the shorter fiction she has come up with. These three stories are set in the same world as her Emperor's Edge and Encrypted series', but with new characters. Each story is self contained but linked together by the same main character. For some reason, the author really likes caves and the stories set inside a salt mine are interesting from that point of view. I quite liked the characters and how the plot is put together for each story.

A fresh addition to the fantasy genre. Likable characters and a writing that pulls you in plus lot's of funny remarks to laugh about. I look out for more in this Swords and Salt story line.
