Von Robin Mckinley : Chalice before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Chalice:

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Habe aber von dem Autor schon viel besseres gelesenVon Jonas AllenHatte bisher "the blue sword" und "sunshine" gelsen.

Beide Bücher haben mir sehr gut gefallen. Dieses Buch fällt stark dagegen ab. Die Story ist einfach, die Charaktere sind nur grob gezeichnet, die Entwicklung der Geschichte schleppend. An die zwei oben genannten Bücher kam es nicht heran. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Märchen von Nina Die Story kennen wir alle. Im Prinzip wie "die Schne und das Biest". Aber neu verpackt. Schöne Ideen. manchmal etwas holprig geschrieben, aber alles in allem gut.

Kurzbeschreibung
Beekeeper Marisol has been chosen as the new Chalice, destined to stand beside the Master and mix the ceremonial brews that hold the Willowlands together. But the relationship between Chalice and Master has always been tumultuous, and the new Master is unlike any before him.
Pressestimmen-High fantasy as perfectly shaped and eloquently told as Beauty and The Hero and the Crown. A lavish and lasting treat.+ -Publishers Weekly, starred review-Readers who long for beautiful phrases and descriptive writing will find themselves drinking in this rich fairy tale as if it were honey trickling down their throats.+ -School Library Journal
