Recommended for anyone who enjoys reading the Bronte SistersVon NPThe complete works, including some less well known novels, some of which are rather bleak but worth reading. Excellent value for money.

Enjoy! KlappentextCharlotte, Emily and Anne Bront are three of the most remarkable novelists and poets of the nineteenth century. Charlotte was the most prolific of the three: Jane Eyre, the story of a governess's triumph over her lowly station in life; Shirley, set in Yorkshire at the time of the Luddite riots at the end of the Napoleonic war; and Vilette, based on her experiences as a teacher in Belgium. The Professor, Charlotte's first novel, was published after her death. Anne Bront was the author of Agnes Grey and The Tenant of Wildfell Hall. Emily Bront's Wuthering Heights portrays the sinister Heathcliff and his love for Catherine Earnshaw.
