KurzbeschreibungA legendary assassin. A terrorist hell-bent on vengeance. A city caught in the middle.Adrian Hell travels to San Francisco, commissioned to take out a government official whos found himself on the wrong side of the wrong people. The job goes as planned, but before Adrian can leave the scene, hes taken into custody by the FBI. Grace Chambers, a straight-talking special agent, asks him to help bring down a terrorist known as The Shark, who's responsible for several recent attacks on the city.But things aren't what they seem, and when the truth behind Adrian's involvement is revealed, so too is the full extent of The Shark's horrifying plans. Forced into a deadly game of cat and mouse, our unlikely hero goes bullet for bullet with an unseen enemy, as the fate of thousands of innocent people hangs in the balance. With time running out, and the body count rising, Adrian must do whatever it takes to stop his adversary before it's too late.Hunter's Games is the latest thriller in James P. Sumner's bestselling Adrian Hell series. Packed with wall-to-wall action, sharp dialogue, and some of the most iconic set-pieces ever written, it's understandable why some readers describe this book as "simply brilliant!"Check out the Adrian Hell Series (listed in chronological reading order)A Hero of War - An Adrian Hell novellaTrue ConvictionHunters GamesOne Last BulletDeadly IntentD.E.A.D.
