Is up to Lindsay's usual ExcellenceVon Ein KundeO.K. fellow romance readers gear up for one extraordinary read from Lindsay McKenna. In Hunter's Pride,if there is one thing this man doesn't lack is PRIDE in himself and his mercenary talents.Except this extraordinary man just wants to be needed like everyone else. The emotional upheaval that Dev and Kulani wrestle with in this story caused me to grieve along with them. I just totally loved this story and thoroughly enjoyed the repartee between Dev and Kulani. The way that Kulani helped Dev to heal as he helped her to heal with tenderness and compassion, brought a mist to my eyes and a glow to my heart. Kuau

sounds like a true Garden of Eden paradise to be enjoyed a little at a time. Thoroughly enjoyed Lindsay's description of the Hawaiian culture and about the homeopathic medicines. This series is fantastic and January, 2000, can't come soon enough for me. Shep's story will definitely be another 5 star book to add to my list. Enjoy!!!!!!!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. An excellent continuation of Morgan's MercenariesVon Ein KundeLindsey McKenna has done it again!!! Hunter's Pride is full of strong emotion that allows you to become involved with the two main characters - Kulani and Dev. The unexpected, yet totally believable, events keep you on the edge as the world around Kulani and Dev changes. You just want to finish the book to see what will happen. Ms. McKenna's research into the background of climbing and the topography is outstanding. Her description of the Hawaiian island transports you to Kauai. I can't wait to read the next book in Morgan's Mercenaries - it's coming soon! It is about Dev's brother, Shep. Happy reading!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. He's so full of himself. And he knows how good he is at what he does as a mercenary. On the other hand, Kulani Dawson's life, which has been ripped up, doesn't ever want to go back to the mercenary way of life. When these two are thrown together in a life-and-death struggle with bioterrorist, each must come to not only rely on one another--but trust each other. And most of all, much to their chagrin, fall in love! This is book 3 of Morgan's Mercenaries: The Hunter's. Dev is the second oldest brother and he's got the macho ego to go with it. I hope you enjoy this book! Warmly, Lindsay McKenna
