KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Ein wundervolles, humorvolles BuchVon Tamara MauerhoferEin absolut wundervolles Buch. Herzliche Gratulation dem Autor, dem es auf eine liebenswerte Art gelingt, den Leser in seinen Bann zu ziehen. Der subtile, britische Humor begleitet einem von der erste bis zur letzten Seite. Der Stil zeugt von grossem literarischen Können. Ich freue mich auf sein nächstes Buch. Ein Schweizer Fan.

Kurzbeschreibung David and Hlne are on their way to spend the weekend with old friends, renting rooms in an even older house, shared with the family who owns it, in the middle of France, in the middle of nowhere. David, a pensive writer trying to finish his first novel, is not in the mood for socialising but he will have to try. It will be David, in his withdrawn state during their first evening, who notices before anyone else that all does not appear to be well: their hosts have a painful secret, and he gradually begins to see that something even more disturbing may lie behind it. But David remains fiercely sceptical, despite experiences he can't explain. Will he be looking out when it really matters? 'Ill be there' brings mystery and tragedy to a comic, satirical narrative.
