wieder: Dean hatte Tyler aus familiären Gründen verlassen (seine Eltern sind bei einem Unfall ums Leben gekommen, seine jüngere Schwester wurde schwer verletzt; um finanziell für sie sorgen zu können, hat sich Dean zur Armee gemeldet). Tyler, der aufgewachsen ist mit einem Vater, der ihn misshandelt hatte, hat die Trennung von Dean nicht gut aufgenommen. Bei ihrem zufälligen Treffen fallen einige harsche Worte, dann verbringen sie zwei Tage zusammen, haben viel Sex (den ich grsstenteils berblttert habe), und beschliessen, ihr Leben gemeinsam zu verbringen. Das wars dann schon. Ich bin mir nicht sicher, ob ich mich morgen noch an irgendetwas von der Geschichte erinnern kann. Der einzige Grund für die 3 Sterne ist, dass die Autorin einen Teil der Einnahmen aus dem Verkauf des Buches dem Trevor-Project zur Verfügung stellt (eine Einrichtung, die suizidgefährdeten Jugendlichen rund um die Uhr zur Verfügung steht).

Kurzbeschreibung Homeless, plagued by nightmares from an abusive childhood, nineteen-year-old Tyler Bishop does whatever he can to escape his pain. Drugs, alcohol, everything's game--at least until handsome Dean Henderson struts into his life and shows him a better way. For two years, Dean's love and friendship give Tyler the strength to face his demons instead of running. Then tragedy strikes. When a drunk driver kills his parents and severely injures his eleven-year-old sister, Emily, Dean panics. With Emily facing years of extensive--not to mention expensive--rehabilitation, he needs health insurance fast. Forcing himself back into the closet, Dean drops out of college and enlists in the Army. For two years, he plays the perfect soldier, but the pressure of pretending to be someone he's not is suffocating. Don't Ask, Don't Tell repealed. Out on walkabout after a painful emotional setback, Tyler isn't prepared for the backlash of seeing Dean again. Face to face for the first time in five years, sparks--and tempers!--fly. Before sanity catches up with them, they're locked in a fierce kiss. But with Dean about to deploy and Tyler wrestling new demons is a reconciliation possible? Or is their reunion doomed before it even begins?
