Leichte Unterhaltung Von ChocolateShoes Erstaunlicherweise bietet dieses Buch weniger Action, als ich vermutet hatte. Zwar gibt es einen Road Trip und eine nicht ganz ungefährliche Begegnung, aber die meisten Zeit fahren Farren und Essa die

meiste Zeit nur oder warten in irgendeinem Motel. Das Buch ist leicht zu lesen und man ist ganz gut unterhalten, darf allerdings nicht zuviel hinterfragen. Ein bisschen komisch fand ich es schon, dass Essa so dermaßen auf Farren abfährt (die Fotoszene war mir ein wenig zuviel des Guten), aber gut. Natürlich kommen sich die beiden näher, obwohl dies wohl eher Uerlichkeiten zu verdanken ist. Mich hat diese Liebelei nicht wirklich berzeugt, ein paar Sexszenen gibt es auch, die ich zum Teil "cringeworthy" fand, aber mein Interesse galt sowieso eher, warum Haven entführt wurde. Das klrnt sich recht schnell. Fand es zwar auch wieder ein bisschen zu extrem, gerade wie sie alles verarbeitet, aber wenigstens ist es logisch und stimmig. Zum Schluss gibt es noch einen kleinen Plot Twist, der zwar nicht ganz unvorhersehbar war, aber gut eingebaut wurde. Das Ende stellte mich zufrieden, lässt aber auch genug Raum für bereits geplante Nachfolgebände. Fazit Ganz nette, anspruchslose Unterhaltung, die meiner Meinung nach noch Potenzial für oben hat, die vielleicht in einem der nachfolgenden Bände genutzt wird.

Kurzbeschreibung If you're looking for a page-turning read, don't miss this action-packed bestselling romance. The day my life took an inevitable detour things got a little crazy. My name is Essalin Brant, but everyone calls me Essa. I attend a small college in a tiny town, and in my twenty-two years of life I've never even traveled outside the state of Pennsylvania. You could say my life is pretty boring. I live by the rules. I'm a good girl and nothing exciting ever happens. But that's all about to change. Enter Farren Shaw. Not only is he older and intimidating, but he's more sure of himself than any 29-year-old man has a right to be. Did I mention that he's drop-dead gorgeous? Well, he is. He also happens to be my best friend Haven's brother. And I would be content with just fantasizing about Farren from afar, but when Haven suddenly goes missing, her gorgeous brother is the only one who believes me when I say she was abducted, even though all signs seem to suggest Haven left town willingly. I know better, though. As does Farren. So when he asks me to accompany him to search for his sister, I accept. That's when the real adventure begins. Our quest to find Haven takes us across the country. And throughout the time we spend together, I find myself falling for Farren . . . falling hard. He's everything I've ever wanted. But is he really someone I should fear? Because aside from making me feel things I've never felt before, Farren is hiding something. Something big. What could this stunning man be keeping from me? And why? Is Haven's disappearance somehow connected to his mysterious job? All I know is that things are about to get real. Welcome to the Inevitable Detour that has become my life. New Adult/Romantic Suspense Book one of the Inevitability duology
