Von Elizabeth Corley : Innocent Blood: 4 (DCI Andrew Fenwick) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Innocent Blood: 4 (DCI Andrew Fenwick):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Ein ganz anderer KrimiVon Edgewartwas voellig anderes. Ein Kriminalfall ohne einen Inspektor, der etwas aufklaeren muss. Eine aussergewoennliche Familiengeschichte von einer adoptierten Tochter, die nach der Volljaehrigkeit ihre Wurzeln herausfinden will. Zu ihrer Ueberraschung sitzt ihre Mutter wegen Kindesmordes im Gefaengnis und wird bald entlassen. Parallel dazu die Handlung des Vaters, des ermordeten Maedchens, der die Toetung der zu entlassenden

Moerderin plant. Ganz differenzierte Beschreibung hoechst unterschiedlicher Charaktere und Mileuschilderungen. Sehr lesenswert.

Kurzbeschreibung They watched as the car burnt. A smell of gasoline mingled with the throat-catching stench of melting rubber, almost masking the sickly sweet smell of roasting flesh. No one spoke. The time for recriminations and the appointment of blame would come. For now they were united by the need to cover up a crime and destroy the evidence. As DCI Fenwick investigates a powerful and predatory paedophile ring and Inspector Nightingale is left to deal with an ex-serviceman turned vigilante, they are both forced to ask themselves: when is a murderer not a murderer, and how far are they prepared to go to see justice done?
