excellent Von Linama I enjoyed this book very much. The heroine being married to a man who's not the hero might be unusual, but that's the storyline and it works. So yes, she's married and yes, technically she's unfaithful but honestly, in the end she does everything in her power to save her marriage. Of course the book is very erotic but for me it was actually more about emotions and feeling than anything else. I'm looking forward to reading the other books of the series.
