Humorous romantic rompVon Ein KundeAll she was going to do was stop for a nanosecond at the East Street Community Center. However, that moment turns into a frantic lifetime for Maddie Givens when two thugs hijack her car occupied by her infant nephew. Steve Jackson quickly leaves the nearby Casa Garcia restaurant and grabs his motorcycle to give chase. However, before he can go, he finds himself saddled with the Virgin Mary, a role Maddie is to perform in the play that night.As Maddie and Steve work together and become locked up along with the baby, an attraction between them explodes. insurance investigator. His three-year search for missing doubloons has imploded with the inadvertent interference of Maddie. AS the good (Maddie) falls in love with the bad (Steve) who reciprocates those feeling, both protect the cuddly (baby) from harm from the criminals.THE GOOD, THE BAD, AND THE CUDDLY is a humorous romantic romp that is just the right spice for the holiday season. The story line is fun as the lead couple fights with thugs who appear to have learned their trade from the Home Alone crowd. Steve's inner struggle between staying solo and his growing love for Maddie adds fiery tension to the tale. On the other hand, Maddie's scorched heart fights with her brain, as she wants to be bad with Steve, but act as pious and good as her parents and sister. Heather MacAllister provides the audience with an enjoyable novel that will tempt many to search for her previous delightful books.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich.
