boringVon customerHow come that almost all of the positive reviews of this book have not been written by someone who's actually bought the book at ?Maybe reading a book first might help to write a true review.I bought the book and read it till the end, despite the fact that I was absolutely bored by flat unattractive characters, whose motives are rather far fetched, to say the least.The plot is simple. In fact, the book would be quite a short one if there were not the lengthy descriptions of what people wear, etc.It's not about dogwalking (although there are dogs in it), it's not a crime novel (although there is crime in it), it's just a shabby little something not worth reading.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Neighbors From HellVon CustomerPowerful opening. A real get-on-with-life broad opens the book with a kind of like Scarlet O'Hara strength and gumption. I'm hooked. Love these who-dun-its. Truly, the simple cover got me first. Art deco colors and nifty associations. Dog walking and murder. Sure not disappointed by that Southern hospitality, or am I? Before I knew it, the book had me scared to befriend any of the characters. Neighbours from hell! You won't be disappointed. Pick it up. He didn't win those awards for dark humor for nothing. "Unleashed" will tie you up.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Wonderful!Von Author Angie MartinAnother fantastic installment in The Gordonston Ladies series! I couldn't wait to get my hands on this one after reading the first book in the series - and it was even better than the first - if that's possible! I think anyone who loves mystery with some witty writing, suspense, and some amazing ladies will love this book. You must pick this one up!

Born in 1967, he served in the Royal Navy in embassies across South America and was an amateur boxer. He worked as a purser on some of the worlds largest super yachts and visited many exotic places. Hes also an instructor of English as a foreign language, fluent in Spanish, and a childrens soccer coach. Duncan retired to Savannah, Georgia, to pursue his passionwriting. Mindful that we all harbor secrets and inspired by the locales odd characters, he wrote The Gordonston Ladies Walking Club, a dark comedic mystery. In 2011, Duncan spent six months in Brazil before settling in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. His interests include cooking, the Israeli self-defense art of Krav Maga, and Dim-Mak, a pressure-point martial art. He has written over two thousand comedy news articles for US and UK websites, and The Reluctant Jesus, an award winning comedic novel set in Manhattan. His latest novel, Unleashed, the highly anticipated sequel to The Gordonston Ladies Walking Club is his fourth book.
