Do not forget - it is fiction!Von Peter WernerThe speed in the plot becomes faster and faster and at the end we do not know any more which character is working for or against the Airlia and if, on which side they are. This series is so intelligently made because it "logically" explains events and myths that have long been enigmas in history, modern or ancient. Myths of the Bible, historical events of ancient Egypt and the statues on Easter island are interwoven with events of our modern times like Mallory's and Irvine's disappearance during their attempt to climb Mount Everest in the 1920s. This is the stuff aficionados of this kind of literature really like. But let's not forget - it is fiction, although you sometimes forget it while reading. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A very entertaining mixture of sci-fi, mystic and military. Von technozid This book is perfect for a rainy weekend or a transatlantic air trip. It has exactly the right mixture of suspense, thrill, sci-fi, mystic and military action. The author plunders all fields of legends, (pseudo-)religious ideas and all the favourite sci-fi ideas and mixes them into a bold, breathtaking novel. Caution however: you probably want to read the previous books in this series first, otherwise you get easily lost.

Kurzbeschreibung Book 5 in the Area 51 series Scientist Lisa Duncan has found the legendary Holy Grail. But can she keep it out of enemy hands? That enemy is the Airlia, frighteningly sophisticated extraterrestrials who came to Earth millennia ago and left behind ancient riddles in the form of the Great Wall of China, the Egyptian pyramids, and the statues of Easter Island. Now the aliens have returned to take over the planet. A team of Area 51 soldiers and scientists race to find the Airlia's keys to power including the Grail before the aliens do. But with Lisa surrounded by the Airlia at the Great Sphinx of Giza, her lover, Special Forces officer Mike Turcotte, must launch a daring rescue and make an impossible decision: save the girl or the Grail?
