Aside from her name on the cover and title page, nothing about this book suggests that it was written by the same imaginative, distinctive author who produced so many other memorable Silhouette Desire titles, such as "Wedding Fever" and "His Seductive Revenge." Susan Crosby is my absolute favorite author in this genre and publication of her novels is something for which I am always impatient. "Groom's Revenge" was a terrible disappointment, as it is formulaic, flat, stale, and just plain boring. Susan Crosby's usual characterizations are multidimensional and fascinating, but the characters of Gray and Mollie are lackluster and uninteresting. Her plots are always dynamic and unpredictable, but this storyline is undeveloped and incomplete. If you are new to Susan Crosby's work, I give my highest recommendation to all of her other books, many of which are available from .com.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. The Groom's Revenge is a very enjoyable story.Von Ein KundeThe Groom's Revenge is a very enjoyable story which continues the miniseries about the Fortunes. I especially liked the character development of Gray McGuire, the male protagonist. He and Mollie Shaw complement each other very well because they have similar familial problems but solve them in different ways.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Great Book!!!!!!Von Ein KundeI loved this story and I loved Mollie and Gray's romance-----be fearless!!! Imagine what we could all accomplish if we approached life and love with a "be fearless" attitude. A very uplifting and positive book.
