It was a dark and rainy night in Toronto Gabe enters this bar on one of upper floors of a Hotel....hoping to meet ... her.Elena.He must've seen her before in there, but we don't know what's between them, or if he's just a bit of a stalker.They talk - he tells her some truths, some lies....But through it all he's scared, afraid this won't work. Why he is afraid we don't know yet. We only know that they end up in Elena's room... But what happens in that room.... I won't tell you. But it's probably not what you think .... What's with Gabe Elena? Do they know each other? What happened in their pasts? Will there be a HEA? Will everybody die at the end? _____ This was a really interesting little thing. I literally had NO idea what was happening during the first 20% of the story But I immediately liked Gabe - with all his fears and weaknesses and whatnot. Bad things happened in his past and in Elena's too.... Both have suffered in the past and baring their souls now in front of each other might be the perfect way to start healing.... I really liked the story - I liked Simon a lot too and you can easily imagine a happy little ever after with them as a family! I might have had some tears in my eyes here and there I think I would've loved the story even more with another 200 pages added to it! There's sooo much story to be told about both of them.... THE HEART OF IT was a really interesting and moving little novella about two lonely and broken souls who might've finally found their other half
