Von S. Oliver Benjamin : The Hidden Hourglass (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Hidden Hourglass (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Overall, The Hidden Hourglass is a beautiful story.Von B!The main characters, Cassandra - a headstrong princess - and Gargoyle Darius, facing a difficult task of solving the mystery around an old hourglass, which belongs to Death himself.It took me some time getting into the story at first, but once the character Rupinitrin appeared, a sarcastic shapeshifter, my patience had been rewarded. Unfortunately, there is an open end... now waiting for the sequel.

KurzbeschreibungDeath has a plan but from time to time, even his plan gets crossed. This rare occasion arises, when a secret order steals his master hourglass and turns the universes law upside down by commanding the one, who has no master Death himself. Their plan: The eradication of the royal family. What they didnt anticipate: Them Cassandra, the sixteen-year-old princess, who revolts against her predetermined life, and Darius, a young gargoyle, enslaved by the human race to protect their castles. For years, Darius has a secret crush on her and now, where her life hangs in the balance, destiny makes their paths collide and together they are pulled into a series of mysterious events. But the deeper she gets dragged into the intrigue the more the noose tightens around her neck. To save her, Darius needs to challenge Death.
