Von Gerri Hill : The Killing Room (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Killing Room (English Edition):

KurzbeschreibungDenver detective Jake McCoy is trying to recover both physically and emotionally from the shooting death of a young boy that also left her injured. She soon finds herself rehabbing at her cabin in the mountains, soaking in the remote natural springs which is exactly where Psychologist Nicole Westbrook vacations and soon stumbles across her When Nicole leaves the next day, the two women know little more about the other than her first name yet they are now lovers instead of strangers. When Jake returns to Denver, a serial murder investigation soon leads her to Nicole. As the investigation develops, their physical attraction threatens to compromise the case. Nicole finds herself struggling to remain in the professional closet that shes been hiding in for so long a place where an out cop like Jake McCoy simply does not belong. Once the crimes are solved, will the women go their separate ways? Or will the physical attraction and the gentle tug of love prove that opposites do attract
