read and a good laugh Von Kate Corner I get it now. Seriously I was having a blonde moment (no offense to all the blondes out there) Charlotte and Byron are role playing. I liked this book a whole lot more than the first one. It was longer for starters and it was a lot of fun to read. Ok so Plantagenet England is new to me especially the language which was odd to read. Once again well written and I got to know Charlotte and Byron a lot better. Looking forward to the third one.

Kurzbeschreibung Lady Charlotte, the only daughter of Henry de Maine, Count of Summerville, is a law unto herself. Unlike the other gently bred maidens of Plantagenet England, Lady Charlotte does exactly what she wants, when she wants. She also has a reputation for rejecting suitors. However, when Lady Charlotte meets Sir Byron, the gallant knight just returned from the Crusades, she may have met her match.
