This book is a perfect combination for lovers of Scottish history, Scottish folk tales and time travel romances. I could not stop reading as soon as I started with this book. The great thing is that the author brings history, mystery and magic together - and also keeps the image of a real highlander alive. The story made me want to meet a man like Alisdair and go back with him into his time.... I can highly recommend this book - it's worth it's prize! I hope this is not the last time travel story Claire Cross has written!

I liked this book, as a filler until the next one in Diana Gabaldon's "Outlander" series comes out. Using that series as the benchmark by which all others are judged, this one came out fairly well. It has a different twist, in that the Highlander comes forward to meet his True Love, rather than the other way around. Check it out!
